Our early summer Maine adventure begins with a visit to Stonewall Kitchen Company Store, where specialty Maine items abound. Afterwards, we head to the popular resort town of Ogunquit. You will see from the scenic coastal area why its' name means "beautiful place by the sea." After check in at the Meadowmere Resort, there will be time to relax and freshen up. Those wishing can enjoy the hotel's amenities including indoor pool, jacuzzi, and the West Meadow Pub. You may wish to stroll Marginal Way for a scenic view of the Maine's coastline or shopping at Perkin's Cove. The evening is free to enjoy many restaurant options in the village of Ogunquit.

Day 2: Wednesday, September 13, 2023: Portland ~ Kennebunkport

After breakfast we set out for a day of sightseeing. We visit the Portland Head Lighthouse, the most photographed lighthouse in America. There will be time to enjoy lunch and shopping in Portland's historic Old Port, a restored waterfront district with cobblestone streets, unique shops, restaurants, and art galleries.

Our next stop will be Kennebunkport. Here we enjoy a guided tour describing its 300 year history from native Americans to early settlers, the shipbuilding era and in more recent years the Presidential summer retreat of the Bush family. This evening an authentic Down East lobster bake is included at Foster's Restaurant. Substitutes for lobster will be provided.

(Breakfast and dinner included)

Day 3: Thursday, September 14, 2023: Nubble Lighthouse Cruise ~ home
